

PRIVACY STATEMENT

We Slade Primary School are a data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act. We collect personal information from you and may receive information about you from your previous school and the Learning Records Service. We hold this personal data and use it to:

- Support your learning;
- Monitor and report on your progress;
- Provide appropriate pastoral care, and
- Assess how well we are doing.

Information about you that we hold includes your child's contact details, national curriculum assessment results, attendance information and personal characteristics such as your child's ethnic group, any special educational and relevant medical information.

We will not give information about your child to anyone outside the school without your consent unless the law and our policies permits us to. We may also need to pass on information to health and welfare practitioners with whom your child may become associated. We are required by law to pass some information about you to our Local Authority (LA) and the Department for Education. When we do pass on information about you we will comply with our obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998 and our school policies and take appropriate steps to ensure that the organisations we pass your information on to do the same.

If you want to receive a copy of the information about you that we hold or share, or copies of our school policies please contact the school office.

If you need more information about how the DfE store or use your information, then please go to their website
